Installation Guide

1.0 Introduction:

This documents describes what a user must use or install, and what environment the user must be in, to run Project Greed. Project Greed is a web based stock market simulator which allows a user to learn how the stock market works by providing a the user with a safe environment to learn about how the stock market works. This software provides the user with real time stock market data which the user uses to buy/sell, participate in competitions, run historical scenarios and otherwise monitor stock market activity.

2.0 Programming Environment:

For this project we used a number programming languages. Listed below are the languages that were utilized and version number if applicable.

PHP
HTML5
JavaScript
MYSQL
CSS

3.0 Required Products:

To run Project Greed you need to have a stable and reliable connection to the internet, a computer with a reliable and current web browser and be able to connect to Hood's Pluto server.